

About Assistant Chief Deputy Robert Chapman...

Robert Chapman came to the Williamson County Sheriff's Office in August 2000 as the Assistant Chief Deputy over the Law Enforcement Bureau. Chief Chapman was born in Denver, Colorado and later moved to Austin where he attended Austin High School. He then attended Central Texas College and Austin Community College. Chief Chapman holds a Master Peace Officer Certification.

Chief Chapman began his career in law enforcement at the Travis County Sheriff's Department. He was a corrections officer and a patrol deputy for eighteen months before joining the Austin Police Department in 1974.

While at the Austin Police Department, he was assigned to Patrol, the Special Crimes Unit, Sex Crimes Detail, and the S.W.A.T. Team both as an officer and a supervisor. He was the Major Narcotics Supervisor when he retired from A.P.D. after 26 years of service.