

DERRICK DUTTON

BIOGRAPHY

Derrick Dutton has been employed with the Williamson County Sheriff's office since October, 1996. He Served 1 year 6 months as a corrections officer and is licensed through TCLEOSE as a Jailer. Derrick became a licensed peace officer in October, 1997. He worked several years in Patrol Services where he obtained Field Training officer status and an Advanced Peace officers License. Derrick worked as a Criminal Investigator until transferring to the Training unit to become a full time instructor.

He has obtained certification as an Intoxilizer operator, Advance Collision Investigator and TCLEOSE Instructor, Special Investigator, as well as Basic and Advance Special Weapons and tactics operator. Derrick is a Certified open water Diver and Swift water Rescue technician.

Derrick's current specialty Instructor certification include, Air Taser, Oleoresin Capsicum, and Special Impact munitions, NRA Handgun/Shotgun Instructor, TCLEOSE Firearms instructor, Sexual Assault Family Violence Investigation instructor. His Training ranges from Statement Analysis and verbal deception to hostage rescue.

Derrick's current lateral duties included Team leader of the Williamson County Sheriff's Office Special Mission Team. He is also a member Swift Water Rescue Team, and Dive recovery Team for the Sheriff's Office.

Derrick's current Association memberships include the National Association of Property Recovery Investigators, the Texas Tactical Police Officer Association, International Law Enforcement Educator and Trainers Association, Nation Rifle Association, and the Williamson County Deputies association.