

Growth at a Glance

Williamson County has experienced tremendous growth and current population projections show this growth will continue. It is the County's responsibility to plan for transportation needs and this growth requires progressive planning to keep pace with the increased number of residents and vehicles and to better protect the quality of life for residents.

Williamson County Outpaces Travis & Hays

The County has 10,860 lots currently in development. That's 4,000 more than Travis County and 6,000 more than Hays County.

New Housing Starts Skyrocketed

New, privately-owned houses on which construction has started.

Calls for Police, Fire, EMS Increased

Includes 911 calls, administrative calls and officer-initiated activities (traffic stops, citizen assists, observed crimes).

Community Sprouts on CR 110

Along CR 110, a total of two lots were developed between 1987 and 2009.

More Growth Ahead

3,697

Additional lots planned in Paloma & Siena developments

City of Hutto Growth

of Housing Permits Grew 107%

2,446

Residential Housing Units Developed Since 2012

If the County Doesn't Plan Ahead

- We cannot protect what is important to the community
- The opportunity to preserve the corridor will be lost as development continues
- We miss an opportunity to coordinate with property owners, businesses, and the community