ORDER TERMINATING DECLARATION OF A LOCAL STATE OF DISASTER FOR WILLIAMSON COUNTY, TEXAS

WHEREAS, on February 21, 2021, the Williamson County Judge issued an Order Declaring a Local State of Disaster for Williamson County, Texas (the "Order") after making a determination based on statements and information provided to him by Williamson County Emergency Management personnel, state and local officials, and other emergency services agencies serving Williamson County, Texas that extraordinary measures must continue to be taken to alleviate and prevent the suffering of people and to protect or rehabilitate property due to the severe winter weather event experienced in Williamson County, Texas; and

WHEREAS the conditions necessitating the declaration of a local state of disaster no longer continue to exist in Williamson County, Texas in relation to the severe winter weather event experienced in Williamson County, Texas; and

WHEREAS, the Order provided that, in the event the conditions improve between date of adoption and the end of the effective date of the Order, the County Judge shall reevaluate the Order at that time; and

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT DECLARED and ORDERED pursuant to the authority granted in the Texas Disaster Act of Chapter 418 Texas Government Code and under the Order, as follows:

1. The County Judge has reevaluated the conditions in Williamson County, Texas and, based on statements and information provided to him by Williamson County Emergency Management personnel, state and local officials, and other emergency services agencies serving Williamson County, Texas, he has determined the Order is no longer necessary.
2. The County Judge hereby declares that the Order proclaimed by the Williamson County Judge on February 21, 2021 shall be terminated as of the time and date set out herein-below.

This Order Terminating the Declaration of Local State of Disaster for Williamson County, Texas is adopted this 23rd day of February, 2021 at 9:30 a .m., to be effective immediately.
